Visionaries

Gioia Michelotti
Director

Noren Vann Kim
Associate Director

Past and Future

During the 1980s, Gioia ministered to Cambodian refugees in the United States, while learning their language, researching their culture, and experimenting with traditional Khmer art forms to proclaim the Gospel. At a Cambodian Christian conference, Gioia met Noren, who was a survivor of the Khmer Rouge.

From 1989 to 1993, Gioia finished her undergrad and graduate studies at Wheaton College. During that time, Noren was Gioia's cultural consultant for contextualizing mission projects for the local Khmer community, and they both disciplesd Cambodian Christians meeting at Noren's house church.

In 1994, they answered God's call to become ministry partners, taking a survey trip to Cambodia. The Cambodian Christian Arts Ministry School was opened in 1995 at a small house on stilts in Phnom Penh. As more disadvantaged children and youth were received, the school moved five times to larger rented buildings. Now CCAMS owns land in Kompong Chhnang province and plans to build their own center there as soon as God provides the funds. Their vision anticipates a CCAM center in every province of Cambodia.

Rescuing Children-at-Risk

*"Vindicate the weak and fatherless.
Do justice to the afflicted and destitute.
Rescue the weak and needy. Deliver them out of the hand of the wicked."
Psalm 82:3-4*

Garlands Instead of Ashes
Isaiah 61:1-3

Before being rescued and coming to live at the CCAM School, most of our students were just struggling to survive. Now they have received "garlands," representing God's blessings, in place of the "ashes" of their former lives.

Redeeming Arts and Culture for the Kingdom of God

*"We have become all things to all people, that we may by all means save some."
1 Corinthians 9:22*

The Angel Gabriel and the Virgin Mary

Communicating the Good News through the traditional art forms of the Khmer people bypasses the cultural barriers erected by Western-style missions and fulfills the biblical mandate to "become all things to all people" in order to save some.

"Christ came to reconcile all things to God."

Colossians 1:30
